

Annex no. 8 to the Study Regulations

Identifier	Scope	Faculty regulations
Faculty of Geographical Sciences
§ 5(1)(b)	Rules of the implementation of the student's obligation to participate in particular types of classes	The student is obliged to attend all classes, regardless of their form and year of study. However, the course leader, taking into account the nature of the course and the ability of the students to achieve the intended learning results, may also determine the classes as optional, but should record this in the subject syllabus and communicate it to the students in the first class
§ 5(1)(c)	Scope and conditions of conducting educational classes, knowledge or skills tests and diploma examinations in a foreign language and preparing diploma theses in a foreign language	With the consent of the promoter, the student may prepare the thesis in English.
§ 5(1)(d)	The credit period for degree programmes conducted as a uniform master's degree programme or as a part-time programme as either a semester or a year of study	The semester system of settlement for the academic year at full-time and part-time studies
§ 5(1)(e)	Admissibility and conditions for repeating the first semester or year of study	A student who has not passed the first semester of studies is struck from the list of students and may recommence their studies after undergoing another recruitment procedure
§ 5(1)(f)	Maximum number of teaching hours and maximum number of examinations per academic year	In accordance with the study plan
§ 5(1)(g)	Minimum average score in the course of study to date allowing to apply for an individual study plan and curriculum (IPS)	Students who have passed the first semester of study and achieved a minimum average score of at least 4.5 may apply for an individual study plan and curriculum (IPS).
§ 5(1)(h)	Conditions of admissibility and procedure for resolving a student's appeal against a decision to refuse credit for a course/component classes	In the event of a refusal of credit for a multi-component course by the coordinator due to lack of credit in one component, as specified in § 41 of the Regulations of the University of Lodz, the student has the right of appeal to the dean. The dean, after reviewing the situation, in justified cases, may order a course/component course to be passed before a commission, which shall take place under the same rules as the commission examination.
§ 5(1)(i)	Mandatory form of the thesis, subject to § 52(2)	The diploma thesis is presented in the form of a written monograph, dissertation, project, or, with the supervisor's consent, a single-author scientific article. A scientific article submitted as a diploma thesis must be written as part of the diploma seminar and published in a journal included on the MEiN list in the discipline corresponding to the study programme.
§ 5(1)(j)	Scope of requirements of the diploma examination	The scope of examination requirements at the diploma examination shall be compliant with the scope of the programme and the learning results for the respective major and level of study
§ 5(1)(k)	Procedure for conducting open diploma examinations	none
§ 5(2)(a)	Maximum number of cases of repeating a semester/year in the majors taught at the faculty	A student may repeat the same semester (excluding the first semester of study) no more than twice.

		If a major (speciality in a major) is not started in the next cycle, the student is not allowed to repeat a semester in that major (speciality). Such a student is allowed by the Faculty to continue their studies on general terms in a related major (speciality) at the Faculty. The decision on this matter is taken by the Dean. Resumption of studies may occur no later than five years after removal from the student register. Applications for resumption must be submitted by the student at least two weeks prior to the start of the semester.
§ 5(2)(b)	Minimum number of ECTS credits or minimum number of majors allowing a student to pass a semester/year conditionally and to be enrolled in the next semester/year of study,	Conditional credit for a semester is possible, but the condition may apply to a maximum of two subjects in an academic year, except for subjects in the last two semesters of study. Failure to pass a subject in the last two semesters of study requires repeating the year. It is not possible to pass the diploma seminar conditionally. A student may apply for conditional credit or repeating a semester within seven days of the end of the re-sit session
§ 5(2)(c)	Applicable sequence of subjects	none
§ 5(2)(d)	Mandatory subjects without passing of which a student may not be enrolled in the next semester/year of study, regardless of the score obtained	Students participating in Erasmus, Erasmus+, MOST etc. mobility are obliged to pass a diploma seminar at the first degree studies and a Master's seminar at the second degree studies
§ 5(2)(e)	Rules other than those provided for in § 23 of these Regulations for the transfer of students from full-time to part-time study or vice versa, rules applicable to the whole faculty or to individual majors	none
§ 5(2)(e) <sup>1</sup>	Separate rules from those provided in § 25 of these Regulations, regarding the transfer of students from other universities, apply either faculty-wide or to specific programmes.	A student transferring from another university must have passed all courses from the last semester at their previous institution. Applications for transfer must be submitted by the student at least two weeks prior to the start of the semester.
§ 5(2)(f)	ECTS credit conversion rates for individual majors and specialities where the exchange of students with foreign or national institutions does not guarantee the equivalence of student achievements	none
§ 5(2)(g)	Possibility to apply from the first semester in the second degree study programme for an individual study plan and curriculum (IPS),	none
§ 5(2)(h)	Rules other than provided for in § 38(7) and (8) for the completion of a course of study	none
§ 5(2)(i)	Rules for obtaining credit and taking examinations other than those provided for in § 38(9) of these regulations	none

§ 5(2)(j)	Additional designations or examples of written work fulfilling the requirements of the thesis, in addition to those indicated in § 52	none
§ 5(2)(k)	Extension of the period of interruption in the study programme indicated in § 54(5) authorising the student to be exempted from compensating for differences in the study plan and curriculum	none
§ 5(2)(l)	A form of Bachelor's/engineer examination other than specified in § 56(6) of these regulations	none
